Pianist Marek Jablonski has toured extensively in Europe, Russia, South America, United States, and Canada. He made his debut in Carnegie Hall with Zubin Mehta and has been frequent guest on radio and television.

A guest artist at the Banff School of Fine Arts for the past twenty years, he is regularly invited to give master classes throughout Canada. He has also given classes in Belgium, France and South America and conducts the annual piano master class at the Bergamo Festival in Italy. He also gives masterclasses for the Advanced Performance Programs at the Royal Conservatory of Music in Toronto and at the Peabody Conservatory in Baltimore.

In 1993, Professor Jablonski joined the faculty of the Department of Music at the University of Alberta.

Welcome to Music at Convocation Hall and this evening's performance by Marek Jablonski. As you wait for the concert to begin, we would like to tell you about a special event coming to Convocation Hall at the end of April.

As some of you may know, Marek Jablonski is also a faculty member of the Department of Music and an inspiring teacher. In fact, most of the performers in this subscription series teach in the Department. On April 27 will be a time to celebrate young artists, featuring some of our finest students in recital. Everyone on stage will be students: the master of ceremonies, the scene changers and the performers. It will also be a time to celebrate our teachers and their dedication, not just to the performers onstage but to all the excellent students in our program.

It will not be easy to select the performers; there have been several outstanding solo and ensemble recitals already this year, with more to come, and the program will not take shape until April, when the recitals and juries are over.

Admission will be $10/adult and $5/student/senior.
